

The PLC proposal is seriously flawed due to the allowance of RFI affecting radio services. Shortwave, amateur, military and other uses of the HF spectrum must be protected from introducing a new technology, regardless of the money pushing for this change.

The PLC technology should not be allowed to radiate any emissions outside of existing permissible levels, nor be allowed to introduce any harmful interference to existing services.